4: Stopping at the Hobbs City Animal Shelter in the middle of the day, Patterson makes sure all of the animals are OK and there are no problems.

5: About ready to call it a day, Patterson responds to a call — a blue heeler got loose and was running around causing problems, such as stealing a little boy's shoe.

6: Before he goes home, Patterson goes back to the city shelter with strays he has picked up and secures them in a cage.
